

Caravan location: Cumbria/Whicham Hall - 4 berth

Caravan description:

If you are looking for a quiet and relaxing caravan surrounded by beautiful countryside and unspoilt views, our lovely static 4 berth caravan makes for the perfect break. Located at the foot of Blackcombe on the edge of the Lake District National Park, the caravan is situated on its own private site and 1/4 acre plot on a working farm. The private site has a large lawn area and ample space for parking.

The farm itself lies in the Whicham Valley, which is completely unspoilt and on the fringe of the Lake District, thus avoiding the the mainstream of holiday makers.

The caravan has full mains facilities. It easily sleeps 4 adults in two separate bedrooms, one with double bed and the second bedroom with twin beds.

There is gas cooking on a full sized cooker, full sized kitchen sink with hot and cold running water. Full sized fridge with freezer compartment. Bathroom with shower, toilet and wash basin. Plenty of crockery and cutlery provided along with all bedding. You will only need to bring towels. Spin dryer, washing line and pegs etc are provided.

The comfortable lounge boasts views of Blackcombe and the valley and includes Digital TV and DVD player. Table and chairs are provided for outside ... more information online
