Bishops Castle & South West Shropshire

Situated in the Shropshire Hills Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. This sparsely-populated area on the borders of England and Wales offers magnificent scenery and excellent walking and cycling.

The nearby town of Bishops Castle is just ten minutes walk away. It is a friendly and fascinating town offering an interesting variety of shops, a leisure center and swimming pool, historic buildings and fascinating museums and good places to eat. There are frequent festivals and music gigs, and perhaps best of all, two real ale home-brew pubs.

The Datcha sleeps 6. It has a room with Bunk-beds, a double room and an open planned kitchen/ diner/ living space with a sofa bed. The Datcha has central heating do ... more information online
