

Caravan location: Scotland/Coulmore Bay - 6 berth

Caravan description:

32ftx12ft, 6 berth caravan boasting a front row uninterrupted view overlooking the picturesque Beaully Firth and over to Inverness. With an abundance of wildlife including dolphins, seals, a wide variety of birds including ospreys and the famous red-kites the Beaully Firth is an ideal place to relax and our caravan is an ideal place to do just that.

With Inverness only ten minutes away you can choose to have a peaceful break by the caravan or be more active in Inverness with all it has to offer. Coulmore Bay makes an ideal base for touring the famous Highlands with all its attractions just a short drive away. Channory point, 30 minutes away is a must for all you dolphin spotters. There are lots of attractions within easy reach: Highland Wildlife Park Black Isle, Landmark Visitors Centre Carrbridge, Jacobite Cruises, to name just a few.

The caravan is equipped to a very high standard with everything you need and we take great pride in all the positive feedback from our guests. The large living area with pull out double bed has a T.V., D.V.D, C.D./radio, Sky freesat and electric fire . The separate kitchen and dining area is fully equipped with gas cooker, fridge, microwave, toaster, kettle, all pots and pans, ... more information online
